Q3. Is the Certificate issued directly from UOW?

This programme is validated and awarded by UOW which means the curriculum is set locally by Learning Capital. UOW endorses on the Certificate as a testament of our quality standards in the course that is being offered.

Q4. How do we compare with Wheelock and Monash?

Our course duration and fees are more attractive as compared to Wheelock and Monash. The contents/curriculum of the courses is similar but the advantage of our programme is that it's a direct honours degree which adds on to the prestige of the qualification.

Q5. Can students attend their graduation/convocation in UOW, U.K.?

Yes, this can be arranged with UOW.

Q6. Can students fly to UOW to complete a few modules of study?

This is a validated course which requires candidates to complete it in Singapore as this course is not being offered in UOW itself.

Q7. Does the teaching faculty include lecturers from UOW?

This programme is fully conducted by our team of local faculty members, lecturers who have Master/PHD qualifications and many years of experience in the Early Childhood Education.

Q8. Why is our programme shorter in duration as compared to other Universities?

Our programme is developed to cater to local needs which are different from institutions which import their programmes directly from the overseas Universities. Being our own programme, our team of expert lecturers is able to devise a compact curriculum which can be completed in a shorter duration.

Q9. What are the career prospects after completion of this Degree programme?

Graduates from this degree programme can progress further to undertake a Master Degree in Early Childhood Education. With accumulated years of experience in the Early Childhood industry, Master degree graduates can apply to MCYS/MOE to for accreditation to teach at any of the private institutions offering Pre-School Teaching courses. Other career positions include:

- Curriculum Specialist
- Operations Manager
- Enrichment Programme Manager

Q10. What is the difference between “Validated” and “Awarded” programmes?

Validated programmes are courses designed and developed internally by the Education Institution. Thereafter, the programme is being endorsed by a reputable University which will scrutinise the curriculum and ensure its equivalent to its own University standard. As for programmes awarded by the Universities, this essentially means that the programme content is imported wholesale directly from that particular University.
